400

COLLINS's
Evening BRUSH:
(From BATH)

Will be exhibited, for the THIRD Time,

On SATURDAY the 15th Inſtant,

At the Free Maſons' Tavern, Great Queen Street,

WITH A DIVERSITY OF

Theatrical Anecdotes a la Scarron;

AND

ORIGINAL SONGS,

PARTICULARLY

The Bruſh; The Stage Play of Life; Date Obolum Belliſario; and The Golden Days of good Queen Beſs!

As it has been Twice received by an elegant Audience, with a Degree of Applauſe beyond the Author's moſt ſanguine Expectations.

The Doors to be opened at SIX. To begin preciſely at SEVEN.

Admittance, THREE SHILLINGS.

N. B. This will be the LAST Exhibition till the HOLIDAYS.